Interra & Verity

The flexibility of the Interra panel system combined with the collaborative family of Verity products offers the opportunity to provide focused and group workspaces for the residential and nomadic setting. Fresh colors from our textile offering give companies the modern environment they desire, creating engaging, contemporary work environments.

Featured Fabric Colors: Serenity, Azure, Mustard & Ocean

My-Hite

Our MyHite family is intended to meet a wide range of user and application needs. Complimented by the classic System 2 Workstation, the new color offerings give the ability to renew a classic and create a progressive environment for your team.

Featured Fabric Colors: Flamingo, Breeze & Cardinal

Novo

Novo panels create spaces within the open floor plan to accommodate environments to require a balance of collaborative space and privacy while supporting mobility to optimize real estate. This advantage addresses the increasing need for work environment diversity offering a broad range of applications and solutions.
